

Fellowship Group Homework and Discussion

Getting Started

1. What one idea impacted you the most from last week's sermon?

Discussion Questions:

2. Leading up to Easter, we are going to look chronologically at passages that describe the last week. This week, we will see Jesus' teaching as He prepares for the Cross. For each passage, give a brief summary of the passage, why this event is important during the last week (in other words, why would Jesus make sure that he is involved in the final week), and how this passage helps to prepare you for Easter.

- Matthew 21:23-27
Summary

Why is this event important during the final week?

How does this passage help you to prepare for Easter?

- Matthew 21:28-32
Summary

Why is this event important during the final week?

How does this passage help you to prepare for Easter?

- Matthew 21:33-46
Summary

Why is this event important during the final week?

How does this passage help you to prepare for Easter?

- Matthew 22:1-14
Summary

Why is this event important during the final week?

How does this passage help you to prepare for Easter?

- Matthew 22:15-22
Summary

Why is this event important during the final week?

How does this passage help you to prepare for Easter?

- Matthew 22:23-33
Summary

Why is this event important during the final week?

How does this passage help you to prepare for Easter?

3. What impacted you the most about these events in the final week of Jesus' life?

4. A key purpose of our Fellowship Groups is to provide accountability. To help with that, discuss the following questions:
- Have you been making it a regular priority to attend a Sunday morning worship service?
 - Have you been faithful in making Fellowship Group attendance a top priority?
 - Are you praying regularly for the members of your Fellowship Group?
 - Are you caring for the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of those in your Fellowship Group?
 - Are you taking steps to become more transparent with your Fellowship Group?
 - Are you serving regularly in one area of ministry, preferably in your area of giftedness?
 - Are you maintaining your Oikos list?
 - Are you praying regularly for your Oikos list?
 - What have you done this last week to reveal God to at least one member of your Oikos?

Vantage Point
Part 2: The High Priest
April 3, 2011