

Fellowship Group Homework and Discussion

Getting Started

1. What is the main goal of your life?
2. How does the way you spend your time testify to the importance of this goal to you?
3. What impacted you the most from last Sunday's sermon?

Going Deeper

Read Philippians 1:1-8

4. Paul thanks God for the Christians at Philippi and gives reasons why he is grateful for them. What reasons does he give?
5. If Paul wrote a letter to you, what things would he list in sharing why he is grateful for you?
6. If Paul wrote a letter to you, what things would he list in sharing why he is grateful for the church?

Read Philippians 1:6

7. Summarize this verse in your own words.
8. What is the conflict between vv. 5 and 6?
9. What is the promise of this verse?
10. What area of your life would be different if you applied the truth of this verse in your life?

Read Philippians 1:1-8

11. Paul says that the Christians at Philippi are partners. What are the goals of this partnership (see 1:7, 12, 27)?
12. How have the Philippians shown their participation with Paul (see 1:19, 2:25, 4:14-18)?
13. In what other way can they demonstrate their partnership (see 1:27-30)?
14. How does Paul show his partnership with the Philippians (see 1:3-4, 7-11, 23-26)?
15. How are you a partner at FBC Prescott?

16. A key purpose of our Fellowship Groups is to provide accountability. To help with that, discuss the following questions:

- Have you been making it a regular priority to attend a Sunday morning worship service?
- Have you been faithful in making Fellowship Group attendance a top priority?
- Are you praying regularly for the members of your Fellowship Group?
- Are you caring for the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of those in your Fellowship Group?
- Are you taking steps to become more transparent with your Fellowship Group?
- Are you serving regularly in one area of ministry, preferably in your area of giftedness?
- Are you maintaining your Oikos list?
- Are you praying regularly for your Oikos list?
- What have you done this last week to reveal God to at least one member of your Oikos?
