

Fellowship Group Homework and Discussion

Getting Started

1. What missionary do you have the closest connection with? What has drawn you towards this missionary?

2. What one idea impacted you the most in last week's sermon?

Going Deeper

3. Read the following verses from Acts 4. For each verse, write down one interesting thing about that verse and how this verse could apply to your interactions with your oikos.

4:2

4:7-10

4:12

4:13

4:18-20

4:21

4. The believers prayed for Peter and John. Re-write each segment of the prayer in one sentence and in your own words. How can you pray each segment in considering your oikos and in considering our missionaries around the world.

4:24

4:25-27

4:28

4:29

4:30

5. Read Acts 4:20. What makes this verse difficult for you as you interact with your oikos?

6. Do you interact with missionaries at any of the following levels? Do you need to increase your involvement in any of these areas?
 - Pray regularly for a missionary

 - Give financially to support a missionary

 - Write to a missionary

 - Go on a short-term missions trip

 - Consider being a full-time missionary

7. A key purpose of our Fellowship Groups is to provide accountability. To help with that, discuss the following questions:
- Have you been making it a regular priority to attend a Sunday morning worship service?
 - Have you been faithful in making Fellowship Group attendance a top priority?
 - Are you praying regularly for the members of your Fellowship Group?
 - Are you caring for the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of those in your Fellowship Group?
 - Are you taking steps to become more transparent with your Fellowship Group?
 - Are you serving regularly in one area of ministry, preferably in your area of giftedness?
 - Are you maintaining your Oikos list?
 - Are you praying regularly for your Oikos list?
 - What have you done this last week to reveal God to at least one member of your Oikos?

I. The Burden for Bad Worshippers

II. My Response #1: Speak

III. My Response #2: Be Part of the Go